

Jean-François Asselin

Director | Screenwriter

BIOGRAPHY

With his very first short films, Jean-François Asselin enjoyed immediate success and won numerous international awards. He scripts and directs François In Series, 22 episodes for television. This comedy sold in many international markets in addition to winning Best Script Format at Mipcom in Cannes.

Jean-François signed his first feature We Are The Others (2017), which has been selected for several festivals. In addition to devoting himself to cinema and advertising, he has ensured the production of popular series in Quebec, including Plan B, which he co-wrote with his accomplice Jacques Drolet. This series performed well in ratings, received rave reviews and won the prize of best drama series for two consecutive years at the Géméaux. The anthological series of 4 seasons is adapted worldwide (France, Belgium and Germany).

In 2022, Jean-François supervises, writes and co-directs the English adaptation of Plan B starring Karine Vanasse and Patrick J. Adams, of which he is the showrunner. It works following Plan B in French and English.
