

Marc Tulin

Writer

BIOGRAPHY

Marc Tulin has worked as a writer in news, international affairs and fiction. His career began in the CBC newsroom and in 1998 he became an intern in the office of United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan where he wrote various texts for the Secretary-General. He was then employed by the United Nations communications office in New York and in 2003 became Editor at the OECD in Paris. In 2005, he won the CBC and Quebec Writers' Federation Short Story Competition that was published in the literary Maisonneuve magazine. He has also published humour stories in the Montreal Gazette and the Globe and Mail.