

Chloé Robichaud

Director | Screenwriter

BIOGRAPHY

At 31, Chloé Robichaud has an impressive track record and a most promising future. In 2013, the writer and director made the Official Selection at the Cannes Film Festival for the second year in a row with her first feature, Sarah préfère la course. The film starring Sophie Desmarais and Jean-Sébastien Courchesne, explores the compromises a young athlete must make in order to achieve her goal. Robichaud enjoys all facets of filmmaking, which is why she writes her films from treatment to script as well as directing and often editing them. In 2012, her short film Chef de meute was screened at Cannes, where it was nominated for the Palme d'or for short films. It was also nominated for a Jutra Award and a Canadian Screen and was named to Canada's Top Ten as well as being shown at numerous international festivals.

In 2016, her most recent film Boundaries, which explores the lives of women politicians, was selected at many prestigious festivals around the world (TIFF, FFVQ). The film won a prestigious price New Director at the Seattle International Film Festival. This coproduction Quebec/ Newfoundland features an impressive distribution with Macha Grenon, Emily VanCamp, Nathalie Doummar, Alexandre Landry, Yves Jacques, Serge Houde, Sophie Faucher and Rémy Girard.

Chloé is also the creator of the Webserie Féminin/féminin, which obtains from its launch in 2014, an international reputation. She has written and directed about ten short films and more than 30 commercials, in addition to music videos for the group Les Incendiaires, Isabelle Boulay, Philippe Brach and Valérie Carpentier. She just completed the TV Series Street Legal (The Broken Clown Company) and she is currently writing her next feature film Happy Days (Item 7).

Chloé Robichaud was born in Quebec City and lives and works in Montreal. She holds an honours bachelor's degree in film production from Concordia University in Montreal and a diploma in direction from the Institut national de l'image et du son (INIS) in 2010.